Better Tone Given Market by Contraction in Business—No Aggressive Strength.

New York; June 28.—A favorable indication of the present position of the stock market stability after the heavy liquidation and decline this month, was furnished today by the contraction of business. The reduced volume of dealings suggested that the disappearance of selling pressure after Monday night had marked the restoration of the list to a state of comparative equilibrium in the environment of disturbing influences with which it has been lately surrounded. The action of stocks themselves was a The action of stocks themselves was a deterrent to the renewal of persistence of speculative stocks intended to force forther liquidation.

There were in the morning intervals of selling activity, but prices offered a good deal of resistance, although there was at no time during the day a display of aggressive strength. Some Oklahoma Refining. Sinclair Oil...... Tobacco Prod..... United Zinc.... Issues were relatively heavy, but the market as a whole was simply somewhat irregular with changes in quoted values owing largely to the trading operations of the professional centin-Government bonds displayed increased heaviness and there was more talk about special government financing on Mexican account, but the funda-mental situation of the securities mar-ket and the basic circumstances of the money market do not permit any depressing inference to be drawn from the outlook for new offerings of public loans, domeatic or foreign. The French loan, which has been long under negotiations, seems to be nearing a conclusion, and other foreign borrowings here are in process of arrangement.

Reports in circulation today indicated a good deal of activity at Washington in the direction of contracts for military materials and supplies. Advice from the steel trade showed an in-creased foreign inquiry for munition
